Guidelines for Full Papers

Deadline

The deadline for submitting electronic versions of your full paper is 1 April.

We would like to make papers available online before the IHDP Open Meeting 2009. Hence, we would greatly appreciate it if you could meet this deadline.

Format

Papers should be limited to fifteen pages. A pithy 2-3 paragraph summary of the paper should come first. A short section may acknowledge assistance, including sources of financial aid, and reference should be made to IHDP Open Meeting 2009 and its themes. Since some of the papers may be published later in different books or journals, no detailed citation rules or formatting requirements are given. However, some basic points are listed below.

The text of the paper should be in 12 pt Times New Roman font. Use 1.5 line spacing throughout. Leave a blank line before titles, headings and captions as well as between paragraphs in the text. Please check English grammar and spelling carefully before submitting your paper. Authors should submit the paper as a Word file via email to kanwar@ihdp.unu.edu. If the author decides to publish an altered version of the paper elsewhere that may affect copyright aspects, please do get in touch with us.
